Re: United States v. Joseph Cimino, 21-CR-00334 (VB)

Dear Judge Briccetti:

As you are aware, this firm recently began representing Joseph Cimino in the above referenced matter. I write to follow up on my application from January 18, 2022 regarding an adjournment of Mr. Cimino's sentencing.

After filing my letter motion, the Probation Officer assigned to this matter, Officer Stephanie McMahon, reached out to me to inform me that the final Presentence Investigation Report ("PSR") is currently schedule to be disclosed to the Court and the parties on February 4, 2022. She further indicated that unless the Court orders the due date for the final report to be moved that she must disclose the final PSR on February 4, 2022. Accordingly, I write to request that if the Court grants my application to adjourn Mr. Cimino's sentencing date that Your Honor also orders the final PSR to be disclosed two weeks prior to the new sentencing date. This will permit counsel adequate time to provide Probation with any additional information and documents they believe appropriate in connection with the final PSR and sentencing. I have been in contact with AUSA Benjamin Gianforti about this application and he has informed me that the government has no objection.
